ABOUT OUR GUEST OF HONOR

ZUKI

Hi folks! I'm thrilled to be here as this year's Guest of Honour!

I'm Zuki, a husky-wolf hybrid thing, and I've been in the fandom for over 2 decades at this point; I guess that makes me a greymuzzle!

I spend my time in the fandom helping out as much as I can; I have always appreciated how much value and friendship the community can bring. I've volunteered with Irishfurries for about 10 years now, and have acted as chair of the Irishfurries committee for about the last 6!

My biggest motivation is to do what I can to make the fandom in the UK and Ireland, regardless of which groups, meets, or conventions you are part of or attend, as good a place to be as possible. We have such a fantastic number of furries now all across the island, and it's my way of giving back to a community that has been so welcoming to me for such a long time, and where I've made lifelong friends not only here but all over the world.

Creatively, in the fandom, I'm known as a photographer – I love to take pictures of both groups and individuals, having now done so for almost every convention I've attended. Over the last few years, I've volunteered as part of Confuzzled's crew as well, taking photos throughout the convention of attendees in an official capacity. Additionally, some of my photography has been featured in the book "Furtannia: The History of the Furry Fandom in the United Kingdom by Tim Stoddard". I love spending time with a subject to bring to life the character and memories of those I capture from behind the lens!

In keeping with my philosophy of community building, outside of furry spaces, I also chair the oldest LGBTQ+ charity in Northern Ireland, which recently celebrated its 50th anniversary, and try to retain my activist roots; I routinely march at Pride, attend social and political events to represent the charity, and work actively with the staff to set the goals and oversee the good governance of the organisation.

My other hobbies include Magic the Gathering, martial arts, cyber security (which is handy since that's my day job!), board gaming, and video games.

I am so excited to be hosting a panel as the Guest of Honour for Anthro Irish 2025!

I'm hoping to cover, as part of the panel:

How and why I joined the fandom – Volunteering both inside, and outside, the fandom – Q&A session with questions from the audience – Some of my favourite photos and what I look for in a great photo.
